

Table of Contents

List of Authors .....	XI
Glossary .....	XIII
Preface
S. Veil .....	1
Introduction
J. Cinqualbre .....	3
Transfusion, a Matter of Cells: Review of the Past Three Decades
P. Hervé, P. Tiberghien .....	5

Transfusion Safety: Certainties, Uncertainties and New Directions

The Concept of Safety in Blood Transfusion
J.-H. Trouvin .....	16
Residual Risks in Transfusion: a Strategic Perspective
J. Coste .....	24
Toward Universal Pathogen Inactivation in Blood Cells
J.-P. Cazenave .....	34
Nanotechnologies Revolutionize the Biological Qualification of Blood Donations
M. Hoummady, P. Morel .....	45

Biotechnologies and Transfusion: what Prospects?

Ex vivo Production of Blood Cells: the Role of Erythrocytes L. Douay, M.-C. Giarratana . . . . .	59
Cytokines and Erythrocyte and/or Platelet Saving Strategy N. El Kassar, A. Schmidt-Tanguy, M.-L. Bidet, N. Ifrah . . . . .	72
Reducing Immunogenicity of Labile Blood Products and Creating Universal Erythrocytes J.-Y. Muller, J. Chiaroni . . . . .	86
Contribution of New Technologies to Blood Cell Collection and Preparation G. Andreu, A. Chabanel, B. Pelletier . . . . .	101
Blood Substitutes: Challenge or Marginality? P. Menu, M. Toussaint-Hacquard, J.-F. Stoltz . . . . .	112

Cellular Engineering in Transfusion Medicine

The Cell: a Legally Distinct Entity J.-R. Binet . . . . .	126
Cellular Engineering and Transfusion: a Continuum? P. Tiberghien . . . . .	142
Stem Cells and their Therapeutic Promise for Tomorrow's Regenerative Medicine A. Turhan, A.-L. Bennaceur Griscelli . . . . .	150
Gene Transfer: from the Laboratory to Clinical Practice F. Rolling, M. Weber, G. Folléa, Ph. Moullier . . . . .	163

Evolution of Transfusion Medicine in its Sociological, Ethical and Cultural Environment

The Ethics of Donation: an Established or Evolving Practice? D. Sicard . . . . .	176
New Fields of Expertise: what Priorities for Tomorrow? B. Cuneo, Ph. de Micco . . . . .	182
Quality Assurance and Transfusion Medicine: what Are the Tools, what Is at Stake? G. Folléa, C. Lefort . . . . .	190

IX

Transfusion Medicine in the Europe of Tomorrow
G. Folléa .....	201
Transfusion Medicine and Hospitals: the Need for Cooperation
J.-Y. Muller, Ph. Richebe, V. Betbèze, P. Fialon, G. Janvier .....	221
By Different Roads: Blood Banks versus Transfusion Medicine
Interview F. Décary and P. Hervé .....	238
Transfusion Medicine in Ten Years: Fiction or Reality?
P. Hervé, J.-Y. Muller .....	249
